Some team may be able to get Day-ville's goat—a real live one with horns—which, is kept hitched to the Brownie players' bench, but Putnam was unable to turn the trick Saturday at Dayville. Dayville won 12 to 10, and as it was the first home game of the season, the victory was doubly satisfying to the big gathering of Dayville rooters. In their half of the first inling they grabbed what proved to be a winning lead. They bunched hits and with the assistance of Putnam's errors sent five men across the plate. Putnam came hack strong in the second. nam came back strong in the second inning. They hammered out hits enough to not three runs and get within striking distance of a victory. Day-ville gradually crept ahead for the next six innings, and excepting in the eighth, when Keach, who had reliev-ed Carley, was touched for a series of hits that scored four runs, and the game was safely Dayville's.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydis E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has cured many cases of female illa, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, indigestion, dizziness, and nervous prostration. It costs but a triffe to try it, and the result is worth millions to many suffering women.

Cheerfulness of Englishmen. If you ask any intelligent foreigne what his chief impression of England is he will invariably reply the cheer fulness of the English. If any proof were needed of the prevalent gloom it would surely be found in the aston fshment which the few remaining cheerful people cause and the amazing popularity they enjoy. Our sunn friends and acquaintances can be counted on our fingers; our disma ones are all around us. A really cheerful Englishman is such a phe nomenon that everybody asks his wife if "he is always like that," and refuses to believe her when she an swers in the affirmative.-Lady Gor
